MEDIA RELEASE

RECYCLING OPENING TO PUBLIC AT TWO SPECIFIC LOCATIONS WITH LIMITED HOURS— THURSDAY, APRIL 23 UNTIL SATURDAY, APRIL 25

Lycoming County – Lycoming County Resource Management Services will be collecting recycling at two specific locations in the Williamsport Area this Thursday, April 23 until Saturday, April 25 from 8:00am to 4:00pm.

Locations – Penn College Parking Lot at 1359 W. 3rd St. Williamsport 17701 (next to the Transfer Station) and Kmart Parking Lot at 1901 E. 3rd St. Williamsport 17701. Please wear masks while accessing these sites. Staff will be there to direct traffic and help but will not handle any materials.

Hours – Public may access these locations for recycling this Thursday, Friday, and Saturday from 8:00am-4:00pm. (Containers will only be accessible during these times, any materials left at the site after hours is considered littering and illegal dumping).

Acceptable recyclable materials – please know that collections have changed to accommodate the anticipated volumes. Cardboard (must be broken down) and clear/brown/green glass bottles & jars will be collected in separate containers. Plastic bottles and jars (#1&2), tin/steel cans, and aluminum cans will be accepted commingled (into one container); and newspaper, office paper, magazines, chipboard, and junk mail will be accepted commingled (into one container). Please DO NOT bag your recyclables, plastic bags are NOT ACCEPTABLE.

Look for future collection sites, locations, and dates notifications in the very near future. Thank you for your recycling participation. We are pleased to know the need and desire for recycling in our region. Thank you to Penn College of Technology and Loyal Holding of DE, LLC for your partnership as we work to reopen recycling operations in Lycoming County.
